

Mike Hall

V.P., Business Development

A United States Marine Corps Veteran and a seasoned motorsports team development leader with over 15-years in the racing industry as a team manager and executive.

Michael has also developed software, networks, social and storage solutions as a senior systems engineer.

When not building and fostering deep business relationships and race teams, Michael volunteers his time restoring and operating vintage WWII aircraft to keep history alive as a tribute to the greatest generation.